

DAILY CANDY

March 2, 2006

The Weekend Guide

In like a lion. Out like a sweet, woolly lamb.

SEE

Brazilian Night

What: Screenings from the Rio Film Fest and after-party with Forro in the Dark.

Why: Hang out with the boys from Brazil. Ain't Rio grand?

When: Thurs. Films at 7:30 & 9:30 p.m.; party, 10:30 p.m.-4 a.m.

Where: Galapagos Art Space, 70 N. 6th St., b/t Kent & Wythe Aves. (718-782-5188). R.S.V.P. for the movies to rsvp@galapagosartspace.com.

BUY

Lola Belle and Ananas Sample Sale

What: Finds like matchstick pants, capris, and Bermudas from Lola Belle are $75-$100 (reg. $175-$240). Leather and abaca bags are up to 75 percent off retail (reg. $145-$440).

Why: Run, Lola, run.

When: Fri.-Sun., noon-5 p.m.

Where: Girl Cat, 167 Elizabeth St., at Spring St. (212-219-1647).

EAT

Tocqueville's New Digs

What: Union Square fave heads a few doors west.

Why: Space: big, new. Food: great, as ever.

When: Dinner.

Where: 1 E. 15th St., b/t Fifth Ave. & Union Square West (212-647-1515).

DO

Smell the Roses

What: Two dozen for $11.

Why: You're desperate to get your spring on.

When: Like you need an occasion.

Where: Any good deli, but we like 40 Prince Farm, 40 Prince St., b/t Mulberry & Mott Sts. (212-941-5973).

