Give and Get

Whether you're looking for a little pick-me-up, or just need to pick up a little present, here's a place to do both. Le Sabon and Baby Too has recently relaunched as an emporium offering luxurious bath products and unique baby items.

If you're in the market for a baby gift for someone who has already outfitted the new nursery, you'll find handmade baby wipe containers that come in a wide variety of vivid prints. Onesies aren't always the most original gift – but you can never have enough – and here you'll find designs by Sweet Impressions with funny sayings like What Happens at Grandma's, Stays at Grandma's. Portable chalk mats by Sam and Bellie roll up and wipe down easily and are perfect for toddlers on the go, and for any parent who has grappled with the "What's for dinner?" question, there are recipe ideas from Baby and Toddler Bistro Boxes.

Once the gift is decided, indulge yourself in a relaxing treat. Originally a purveyor of bath and body products, Le Sabon offers everything from creams and lotions to "body soufflés" to bath salts from the Dead Sea. There's also an extensive line of homemade potpourri, and "energy oils" that are sure to come in handy.

Busy moms always appreciate a one-stop shopping experience – especially when it comes with a touch of pampering.

Open Monday through Saturday 11am-8pm (Sunday until 6pm); 834 Lexington Ave. near 63rd St., 212-319-4225.
